85% per cent of all Flower and Vegetable Seeds used in America now come from CALIFORNIA
The Seeds from this Land of Sunshine Grow

We are one of the largest growers of flower and vegetable seeds in California. Our Atascadero Seeds will grow for you, no matter where you live, because they are hardy, true to strain and of proven germinating quality and were grown from selected stock under our own supervision in our own seed farms. Let us send you our catalogue direct from the land of sunshine.
