An amendment to any license will not serve to extend the original expiration date and an application for an amendment will not constitute an application for renewal of the license.

REVOCATION OF LICENSES

Any license issued pursuant to this policy may be immediately revoked by the Chief of Police for any of the following reasons:

- The licensee has violated any of the restrictions or conditions placed upon the license.

If any license is revoked, the Department will immediately notify the licensee in writing and the California DOJ (Penal Code § 26225).
